Annual Subscription to Scottish Left Review - Organisations

Scotland's radical political magazine is a non-profit space for people of any political party or none who want to read about a better vision for Scotland, this is our eighteenth year. Readers are welcome to submit articles for consideration for publication and there is a letters/feedback facility.

All articles are submitted free and volunteers do layout, administration, and distribution. Subscriptions have been kept to a minimum and, after printing and postage, there is very little surplus. We intend putting more resources into publicity and increasing subscribers – any help you can give would be welcomed.

Please subscribe and if you feel able, make a modest donation. It would also help our administration if you paid by standing order using the form below or online through PayPal/bank card. Organisations are encouraged to take multiple copies for their activists. If paying by standing order allow 10 days on commencement date for processing.

Subscribers are automatically placed on our network contacts, you can unsubscribe at any time, contact details are retained for administrative purposes, see our privacy policy at our website.
